CITY TRUSTEES

The Garbage Question—New Contract for Power Discussed—Statement to be Prepared for Bond Election

Having been in session as a board of equalization for an hour, at 7:40 the board assembled. Communications asking for garbage cans and for permits to hunt in Verdugo Canon were read; the latter being granted subject to approval of property owners. Mr. Hall, the garbage collector, said people did not let him know about garbage, but it developed that his address is unknown to the general public; the board concluded to do something about it later. Mr. Fairchild reported that having been notified to move his planing mill to the industrial district, he had made arrangements to do so, but was threatened with an injunction if he moved to the location selected; he wanted the protection of the board.

At this point a recess was taken for fifteen minutes to enable the auditing committee to pass on bills. Reassembling, approved bills were passed on.

Manager of lighting department requested authority to advertise for 5000 pounds of copper wire; agreed to. In regard to contract for power he reported that the present contract expires November 1st, and the Pacific Light & Power Co. offers to make a very much better rate than in the old contract. The Owens river power will be available in about a year at probably lower rates; in the meantime the Pacific Light & Power Co. is willing to let the city have power at the rate being paid now until arrangements may be made with them or any company. If the power taken from the aqueduct it will necessitate the building of a line to connect with it, thus offsetting to a great extent the lower rate. At the present time the Pacific Light & Power Co. is the most desirable, but after the arrival of the aqueduct power, the conditions will be different. Mr. Lynch hesitated about making a recommendation in the matter. Mr. Coker was willing to support a motion to enter into a contract with the Light & Power Co. Mr. Watson was of the opinion that the latter offer is at present the most desirable. Mr. Lynch thought no chance for city to be the loser by such action as he believed the power company would undoubtedly make a lower rate to meet aqueduct competition. The motion passed to enter into a contract with the power company.

The street superintendent reported that the section of Verdugo road south of Sixth street is completed and suggesting that trustees examine the work, which they agreed to do on Friday of this week. The health of trustees in prohibiting meetings of children; he made effective for two weeks more; action taken accordingly. He also recommended action in regard to stricter regulation of horses kept on city lots, as frequent complaints keep coming in. On motion of Mr. Lane the city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance covering the matter. A proposition was received from A. W. Randolph to pay the city $10 a month for garbage delivered at Mr. Hall's on West Fourth street; the same was accepted. A motion was adopted to notify all householders to procure proper receptacles and place garbage on sidewalks.

A communication was received from representative of C. V. Brown, Verdugo road, in reference to deeding property to city for street purposes; the principal stipulation being that the city protect the property from storm water; referred.

Report of city engineer recommended that the contract for the improvement of Penn street and a portion of Sixth street be awarded to F. R. Sinclair, and the necessary resolution was passed. On motion of Mr. Coker, the street superintendent, was authorized to make temporary repairs on a portion of Central avenue. The city engineer reported the work to be done there by the railroad company in lowering track, that the matter is shaping satisfactorily and will undoubtedly come to a head soon.

The board took up again the question of entering into contract with the Pacific Light & Power Co. rescinding the action earlier in the evening, and instructing the manager of the light department as to a number of provisions to be inserted in the contract if made. The chairman and Mr. H. B. Lynch were designated a committee to propose a statement to be submitted to voters at the proposed water and park board election, and to embody therein the opinion of an expert on the subject. The Verdugo Pipe & Reservoir Co. was ordered to have its engine muffled at pumping plant in Second street.

SWEET PEA LUNCHEON.

A prettily appointed luncheon was served Wednesday in the home of Mrs. H. A. McPherson of Pioneer Drive who entertained in honor of her house guests, Mrs. Frank Crutcher and Mrs. L. A. Moore of San Francisco. Pink and white sweet peas formed a pretty centerpiece and hand painted place cards marked covers for six guests.

Mr. Sloan Pitzer, city attorney for Alhambra, and Republican aspirant for the nomination for Congress, called at the NEWS office Tuesday.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

Water, Parks and Other Live Subjects Discussed

There was a good audience in attendance at the regular meeting of the chamber last Friday evening. President Emery in the chair. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $38.62 on hand. Mr. Goode reported that money enough had been secured to pay for the demonstration of the Mt. Verdugo Scenic railroad, surveys have been made and construction work will begin within a few days.

A letter was read from Lt. Gov. Wallace of La Crescenta regarding the improvement of Verdugo road from the Glendale southerly limits to the San Fernando road, necessary to complete this portion of the Good Roads system. A committee consisting of the chairman, Mr. Emery, with Messrs. J. R. White, Jr., and T. W. Watson, was appointed to take the matter up with the street superintendent of Los Angeles. Mr. Goode offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That whereas a resolution was passed at a recent meeting held under the auspices of the chamber of commerce, asking that the city trustees do not call an election for the purpose of voting bonds to purchase the Verdugo Canon water until a further investigation by disinterested engineers, and

Whereas such resolution was not endorsed by members of this organization; Be It Resolved, Therefore, That the members of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce hereby recommend that the city trustees should call an election immediately for the purpose of voting bonds in the amount of $225,000 to purchase a municipal water plant, but that no bonds shall be sold until a definite offer at a stated price has been made to the city of the Verdugo Canon water. And a definite offer and price submitted from Los Angeles city for a supply from the Owens river, provided such offer is made within four months from date; and also that no action be taken by the board of trustees to purchase a supply from either source until an election has been called and a majority of the voters have decided which shall be purchased and that the trustees shall act only in accordance with said majority vote.

Mr. Owen offered the following amendment, which was voted down: "To delay calling the election for four months or until such time as a definite proposition for purchase of water supply and distributing system are included in same election. The original motion was adopted.

The park question was discussed. Dr. Jessie A. Russell addressing the chamber and favoring two parks. Mr. Overton advocated one central park. Mr. Emery spoke in favor of securing the Sanitarium grounds for park purposes. Others speaking on the subject were Messrs. Stanley, Usilton, McElroy, Goode and Watson.

On a recent visit to Lancaster, the editor enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dunsmoor, who twenty years ago were residents of Tropic, having a home at that time on the San Fernando road, near the winery. Mr. and Mrs. Dunsmoor retain a warm place in their hearts for the old-time friends. Mr. Dunsmoor has for many years been postmaster at Lancaster.

Mr. J. E. Walker dropped business cares long enough this week to go fishing, dropping a line into the deep sea down Redondo way.

OUR VALUATION

Over Two and a Half Millions

City Assessor G. B. Hoffman furnishes us the following as the valuation of Glendale for assessment purposes for the present year: 2560 owners, valuation $2,656,359.

The above includes a valuation of $540,000 placed on the West Glendale section. The probability is that the tax rate will remain about the same as last year.

FAVORABLE MENTION.

One of the strong candidates for the legislature from this district is J. C. Sherer, our neighbor and brother editor of the GLENDALE NEWS. He has announced himself only after the earnest solicitation of many friends after the decision of C. H. Randall to run for Congress. Mr. Sherer has been a resident of this section for about thirty years, and is thoroughly familiar with the conditions and needs of the district. He has always been a strong active Republican and deserves the support of the party. He is independent in his views and will stand for what he believes is right, regardless of bosses and interests. This section badly needs a representative from these parts and voters can do no better than select Mr. Sherer—Eagle Rock Sentinel.

The voters of the San Fernando Valley should give our fellow valleyite, J. C. Sherer of Glendale, a rousing majority. Let him know that we have as loyal a bunch of citizens in our beautiful valley as can be found anywhere. Mr. Sherer has lived among us for nearly thirty years and knows familiarly all the conditions that confront our rural districts: water litigation, city and county consolidation, Owens river water distribution; and if we send him to Sacramento as our assemblyman, he will get for us just what is best for the valley's interests. A vote for Mr. Sherer is a vote for the betterment of the entire San Fernando Valley.—Lankershim Lancer.

KITCHEN SHOWER.

Mrs. Daniel Campbell of Ard E'en entertained in her foothill home on Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Emma Williams. The home was artistically decorated in yellow and white, the color scheme being carried out in every possible detail.

Miss Alice Frank won the first prize in a guessing game, the questions of which were answered by the names of articles used in a kitchen. The party then adjourned to the lawn where Miss Emma Williams tossed a package into the air, the catcher was to be the next bride. It was captured by Miss Louise McPeak of Los Angeles. This was followed by a kitchen shower for Miss Williams, who received every conceivable object to be used in a kitchen.

Dainty refreshments were served and the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to a musical program. Out-of-town guests were Miss Louise McPeak of Los Angeles and Miss Eleanor and Kathryn Clemons of Altadena.

FIRE IN VERDUGO CANON.

A fire started in Verdugo Canon Thursday of last week near the old ranch house which burned over about twenty acres but did no damage beyond the destruction of probably a dozen live oaks.

Earle Thomas of West Broadway leaves Saturday with the National Guard for their annual encampment.

ANTELOPE VALLEY

A Few Notes From Over the Mountains

The editor visited Antelope Valley last week and as he strolled around its principal town, Lancaster, was reminded of a night over thirty years ago when he camped close to the water tank and section house that then constituted the town. He was something of a tenderfoot at the time and wasted some precious hours that should have been devoted to slumber, in guarding his horses against the designs of a gang of horse thieves against whom he had been warned and who he now believes existed only in the fertile imagination of the native who gave the warning. Lancaster has grown; it is not yet a great metropolis, but it is surely getting there. Some day when Los Angeles shall have gobbled up all the county south of the Tehachapi, Lancaster will be the county seat of a compact little county of considerable achievements and great possibilities. The place has not arrived at the brick block stage yet, but will come along soon, for there are several business establishments there which are certainly making their proprietors wealthy, and by the way, a banking corporation has been formed and in a few weeks the local money will be taken care of at home. Antelope is a great valley, some forty miles in diameter, at an elevation of about 2300 feet. Snow falls there in winter, but except at the base of the surrounding mountains, does not lie long. There are some old settled places on the west side, but a lack of water has prevented growth and development. Through that side of the valley comes the Owens river aqueduct and the pipes that are to carry the oil from the Midway fields to Los Angeles. The people of the valley just now have a just grievance against the aqueduct management, for the hauling of supplies from Lancaster by heavy trucks has resulted in the cutting up to the extent of impassability almost, of the good roads leading to the westward so that the routes that were growing popular among the users of automobiles, are being abandoned. The condition is really a serious one and the injustice of it consists in the fact that the people who have paid for the roads in taxes, are deprived of them by a non-taxpaying user. In all equity the city of Los Angeles should in some way reimburse the people of the valley for damages, unintentionally inflicted.

But the principal subject that agitates the people of the valley is the route of the proposed state highway from north to south. This question is unsettled and will not be decided until after the September elections, for it's a mighty useful cog in the political wheel. In the meantime the impression has been created that the road will pass through the western part of the valley, 25 miles or so from Lancaster, missing also Mojave, Palmdale, Acton and smaller settlements. Glancing at the map there seems an obvious reason for this—the route between north and south is by this course some forty miles shorter. But the people of the valley reason that as they pay the taxes, the road should be put where it will do them some good, and back up this potent reason by the fact that construction along and over the mountainous section on the west will be relatively much more expensive per mile than over the level stretches of the valley's center. Around this matter a very fine political game is being played. Two of the influential dailies of Los Angeles are devoting columns of space to the subject in advocacy of the mid-valley route, and their influence is supposed to be exerted over the state highway commission to make it do the obviously just thing. Possibly, their interest may be influenced somewhat by the fact that a "hated journalistic rival," has with other large capitalists an interest in the great Tejon ranch on the west side, so there you are!

Meanwhile the valley is developing rapidly; land is cheaper there than any place else in the county. Artesian wells are numerous and each one is the center of acreage green with rank alfalfa. New settlers are coming in almost daily. The most of them bring money enough to put down a well, build a modest house and get a horse or two and some implements—the rest is easy. Keep your eye on Antelope Valley—it's coming—and it's going some!

WATER

Concise Statement From Mayor Watson—Resolution Adopted by Trustees

Mr. H. B. Lynch and the president of the board of trustees are authorized to prepare a statement to be placed before the voters of our city containing a proposition for the purchase and improvement of the present water systems, together with a statement of the present condition and value of said systems. Also maps showing the location of present systems and to what extent they may be used as a part of an improved municipal water plant; also indicating on said map the new construction necessary to such plan and an estimate of cost of same. Said committee is authorized to secure the services of a competent hydraulic engineer to assist in the preparation of said plans and estimates.

The rapid growth of our city has rendered the present distributing systems inadequate. However, it is not desirable that each company proceed independently to improve its system, which would result in the duplication of reservoirs, trunk lines, and in many instances mains and other equipment upon which their consumers would have to pay interest. Neither is it desirable to duplicate the present systems with an entirely new municipal plant as that would result in the people having to pay interest, together with the operation and upkeep expense of both systems.

The most desirable method of procedure to establish a municipal water plant is the purchase of all present systems, consolidating them under one management and making extensions and improvement in accordance with one plan. In almost every instance cities find it desirable to proceed in this way.

REGARDING INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

Recommendations by Los Angeles Health Board.

1. Avoid having children come together, as in picnics, parties, and the like. (A little boy, four years old, gave a party on a Thursday. On the Monday night following he was dead of Polio-myelitis. The other children of this party were exposed, and one of them has developed the disease.)
  2. Keep children at home. Allow them plenty of fresh air and sunshine.
  3. Keep yards clean and free from every bit of decaying vegetable or animal matter.
  4. Keep the premises watered to lay the dust.
  5. Keep the intestinal canals of the children active (almost all infected cases are constipated). Give simple, well-cooked food, easily digested food and plenty of pure water between meals.
  6. Cleanliness of children and houses is important. All fruits and vegetables should be cleaned before eating.
  7. Flies should be destroyed, as they carry dirt. Windows and doors should be screened. (The city will do this when necessary.) A good fly killer is one pint water, one tablespoonful of formaldehyde, one tablespoonful of sugar, and milk makes a good addition. Flies must drink; and this drink will kill them.
  8. Children should not be allowed to become exhausted or over-tired. This is especially true of those convalescing from the disease.
  9. Children who have been infected should be made to rest. This is important, and should be insisted upon as long as there is any pain in the joints or muscles.
  10. Report every sick child to the health department. This is important. The city has taken this epidemic in hand, and the services of physicians and attendants are offered free. The reason for reporting every sick child is that the infected cases may be identified and quarantined, while the others will be free.
  11. The committee recommends that it is not necessary to be panicky. The main reason for extreme care is to check the spread of the disease, and in reducing the chance of paralysis in cases where the disease has not yet reached that stage, and to care for those who are paralyzed.
- Dept. of Health, City of Los Angeles.
Publicity Committee.

Mrs. A. M. Beamon of Maryland avenue was a guest on Friday of Mrs. H. R. Kennedy of Los Angeles on an auto party and luncheon at Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Meeker of East Sixth street entertained with a dancing party at their home on Thursday evening. A number of out-of-town guests were present.

Lew Wardell came down from the mines in Mariposa county Wednesday to spend a week in Glendale.

GLENDAL, CAL., AUGUST 16, 1912

Governor Johnson says he "has given the best years of his life to the Republican party," which is very sad.
What will the Progressives do with the remains?

Every now and then some one of his admirers compares Roosevelt to Lincoln, but in their wildest spasms of enthusiasm they have not yet made out his resemblance to George Washington.

Some "Progressive" party of the future will resurrect the already old-fashioned Ten Commandments for a platform and slide into the time light on them, if not into office. And "Vox Populi" will hail it all as something new because he had not happened to think of it. So goes the Merry World around!

There is much talk about the high cost of living and almost every budding statesman as well as some who have gone to seed, have a scheme for bringing everything desirable down to a lower altitude, but this paper will support the man who can evolve a plan by which there shall be a high price for the thing we have to sell and a low one for the things we have to buy.

It is funny that in a journal devoted to the printing interests on this coast the principal editorial on "Newspaper criticism," should in two short sentences contain two glaring errors, as are here quoted: "The faults noticeable in California newspapers are for the most part INDIGENT to the small paper. A head of good TOPOG-GRAPHY often is marred by an insane text."

Reform costs money. The Los Angeles Express, the San Francisco Bulletin and the Sacramento Bee, all Johnson organs, charged the state this year the modest sum of $1.70 an inch for printing a delinquent tax list.

Last year the Express charged $36 for printing a tax list of 49 lines; this year for the same number of lines the bill is $73.50. The San Francisco Chronicle last year printed the notice for $24.75, this year the job was given to the Bulletin which rendered a bill for $98.18.

In the superior court in Los Angeles, Judge Wood gave a decision in the case of the Union Water company against the City of Los Angeles to the effect that the water company being a common carrier, was not entitled to place a monetary consideration on the water it had developed; the said water being common property in the Hollywood basin.

This decision has no bearing on the water situation in Tropic and Glendale, in as far as the Verdugo Canon water is concerned, that water not being common property but belonging to individual owners by court decree.

The Hermosa Beach News says:
"The only way to beat the county charter proposition is either to send a responsible man to the legislature or to bond your city to the limit. If we are bonded as far as we can go, Los Angeles will cast us aside like an old shoe. What that metropolis desires, of course, is several of these fat, juicy cities which are capable of yielding a fine bond issue, that Los Angeles proper may be fixed up in becoming style, while the poor little cities, cry as they will, must 'hold the sack.'" Think it over—be advised as to conditions as they exist, and then get busy accordingly.

"The water of Verdugo Canon, belonging to the inhabitants of Tropic and Glendale, as an appurtenance to the lands they occupy, for their domestic and irrigation purposes. Several water companies are engaged in the business of "common carriers" of this water. They are not its owners. They do not have it for sale. It is FREE to them to carry for hire. That is why we designate it as 'free water.'

We can furnish the facts, but not the brains to understand them."—Tropico Sentinel.

Thanks Brother Burch: we thought we were drawing upon an illimitable surplus.

THE CONQUEST OF DISEASE.

Under this head, the Scientific American congratulates the health department of the city of New York upon the fact that the death rate there has been reduced in forty-six years since the department was organized, from 36.31 to 15.13 per thousand. The hope is expressed that in the next fifty years science will have completely mastered the infectious diseases. It is in this class of ailments that science has gained its principal victories, notably over typhoid fever, which is no longer considered as among the most serious of contagions. The one disease over which science has not yet scored success is consumption (tuberculosis), although some progress has been made which makes hopeful the contest with this, "the great white plague."

Attention is called to the fact that this progress has been made in the face of strong opposition from the anti-vivisectionists, but the pain inflicted in a few cases on the lower animals has undoubtedly resulted in the saving of the lives of great numbers of human beings.

A "CRUEL DISILLUSION."

Moreover, I had opportunity in several states to talk with men who went to Chicago with an idealized Sir Galahad in their minds as to the third-term candidate, but who came home sadder and wiser men, and in some cases not only that, but angry, because they felt that their moral aspirations had been capitalized by a politician who was clearly not seeking anybody's good in particular, but endeavoring to utilize the moral hopes of a vast number of people for his own selfish ends.
One such gentleman, a college man and a person of considerable consequence in his neighborhood, said to me, "My actual contact with Roosevelt was one of the cruellest disillusionings of my entire life. In the entire period of my stay in Chicago I did not hear or see a thing in connection with the Roosevelt campaign which did not disgust me and make me ashamed that I had had anything to do with it. I had spent time and money in what I believed and still do believe to be a great moral-political awakening, only to find at Chicago that the more admirable characters in the contest there were not with us, but against us; that my efforts had been spent for a vain bluffer whom I should have been ashamed to have my son see as a representative son of the nation."—

LISSNER POLITICAL MACHINE CALLED TO ACCOUNT.

Mr. Charles H. Randall is a resident of Highland Park and is a candidate for Congress. Mr. Randall has done some very efficient service for the people of the state in the legislature during the past years and has a record of which any public servant may well be proud. The interesting part of Randall's scrap is that where heretofore he has had the indorsement of the Lissner machine he must this year make his fight without that support and against a candidate of the Lissner machine's selection. And he must fight the machine not because he has not always been a true progressive and stood for clean politics, but because in fulfilling the duties of his office and carrying out the obligations of his oath to serve the best interests of the people of the state he took a position opposite to that planned by the machine leaders.

There is no denying of course that the Lissner machine is as strong as any Southern Pacific machine that has ever attempted to dictate the officeholders of the state, but the people have permitted it to grow strong because they have felt that the work the machine was accomplishing justified the means—and it has in most cases, but when the machine seeks to oppose a man with a record such as Mr. Randall has, a man who typifies the highest principles of good government, it is taking a step in a direction in which many steps will lead to a complete loss of the public confidence.—Hollywood-Citizen.

THE SELECTION OF JUDGES.

Under the present law, the selection of Judges by the voters of this state, is a matter entirely devoid of politics.
In other words, it is nonpartisan.
The names of all the candidates for judge are placed on each of the several party tickets, and there is no designation thereon by which the party affiliation of any candidate may be determined.
The voter is left to his own resources to learn of their qualifications. In a county of the size of Los Angeles county, it is impossible for the average voter to have an acquaintance with more than a very small percentage of the candidates, and he is forced to rely upon his lawyer friends for information regarding the fitness of candidates for the position of judge.

Among the candidates this year, is Judge Frederick W. Houser. During the past six years he has served this county faithfully and well, and the lawyers throughout Southern California are practically unanimous in his support. Judge Houser's record is clean, both as a judge and as a man, and we know of no reason why he should not be reelected.

PASADENA ON CONSOLIDATION AND OWENS RIVER WATER.

The Pasadena board of water commissioners, in a written communication recently to the Public Service commission of Los Angeles, hit the nail on the head when it said, in part:
"Pasadena desires to control its own liquor regulation, and were there no other reasons at all this one would be sufficient."

"Pasadena has no way of telling what the political situation in the larger city will be in the future, and annexation might be detrimental."

"The local street department can meet the demands of the city's highway improvement better than can the larger municipal government."

"A political body of moderate size can institute advanced steps that a larger organization could not succeed with."

"Pasadena is desirous of carrying her own burdens, even though at considerable disadvantage."

"For these and other similar reasons, Pasadena does not desire to annex with a larger city."

"If a portion of the Owens River water and power cannot be disposed of without your board retaining control, we would like a proposition from you giving the conditions under which you would dispose of some of it."

"THESE CONDITIONS, HOW-EVER, SHOULD NOT REQUIRE PAS-ADENA TO GIVE UP ANY PART OF HER SELF-GOVERNMENT."

"This is all stated thus plainly to show why Pasadena asks you to give your lowest price without at the same time offering annexation merely for the purpose of making negotiations easy."

FIFTY YEARS ON THE STAGE.

A Los Angeles Sunday paper had an interesting story of the fifty years spent on the stage by Mr. Harry Duffield, a resident of Glendale. Mr. Duffield during that time has played many important parts and supported the most noted actors of the time. But no part that he has represented on the mimic stage reflects more credit upon him than that which he has filled for several years past as one of the most honored of Glendale's group of actors having their homes in Lomita Park and all of whom are daily playing the part of good citizens.

On Sept. 10th at the Burbank theater, Mr. Duffield will be tendered a benefit by his fellow actors in honor of his half century of work in his chosen profession.

CHARLES WELLBORN.

For Superior Judge.
Strongly Backed by Members of the Los Angeles Bar Association.

At the solicitation of thirty of the leading members of the bar of Los Angeles county, as well as of heads of departments and other officials of the city, Charles Wellborn, member of the public service commission, has announced his candidacy for the superior bench of the county.

"The members of the bar association, including such men as W. J. Hunsaker, T. E. Gibbon, Oscar A. Trippet, L. H. Valentine, John W. Kemp, Judge Wheaton, Gray, John D. Pope, Sheeldon Borden, E. W. Britt, George H.
Smith, John C. North, Lucius K. Chase, G. C. DeGarmo, John G. Mott, Charles Cassatt Davis and others, in the communication which they all signed and sent to Mr. Wellborn said: "We are vitaly interested in the election of honest, able and conscientious superior court judges. The volume and importance of the business transacted by our superior court require that these positions be filled by lawyers of known ability, experience and integrity. We are convinced that you possess all these qualifications, and are especially well qualified for a judicial position, and therefore urge that you become a candidate at the coming primary election." The signers also promised to give Wellborn active support in the campaign.

Many Sign at City Hall.

About the same time a petition was circulated at the city hall, headed by Mayor Alexander and signed by C. H.
Hance, Walter Mallard, W. M. Humphreys, John S. Meyers, Lorin A. Handley, George W. McDill, George B. Anderson, Rolland P. Bishop, W. T. Hishop, Frank F. Schumacher, Percy F.
Schumacher, Richard M. Bishop and others, asking Wellborn to run. To both he gave a favorable answer.

Mr. Wellborn is the oldest son of Judge Olin Wellborn, United States judge in this district. He was born in Atlanta, Ga., in 1867, and lived for a short time in Texas, where his father was elected to congress, and took his family to Washington. There the son received most of his education and attended Columbian university, being graduated from the law department.
He came to California in 1887 and settled in San Diego, where he was admitted to the bar, and entered the offices of a firm composed of Judge Wellborn, John D. Works and John T.
Jones. He came to Los Angeles in 1896 and has lived here since and practiced law continuously.

"Drafted" for Police Board.

In 1911 Mr. Wellborn was one of those "drafted" by the mayor to serve on the police commission. He made an excellent record and at the end of a year was promoted by the mayor to the public service commission, formerly the water board. He is still serving there. He has been active in the Good Government organization and its various campaigns and has served the city in other ways. He was a member of the charter amendment committee appointed by the council in 1909 and is now serving as a member of the city board of freeholders, which are preparing new charters for the city and county, respectively. During his service on these boards he has devoted a great deal of time to the study of municipal charters and has become a recognized authority on such subjects.—(Adv.)

McLACHLAN DEPRECATES THIRD PARTY FORMATION.

Congressman of Old Seventh District Says It Gives Democrats Great Advantage.

James McLachlan of Pasadena, for twelve years congressman from the old Seventh district, and now making a personal campaign in the new Ninth district for nomination and election, is out with the following statement: Ours is a government by parties.

For more than half a century two great parties have contended for governmental control, the Republican and the Democratic. The former has been the party of progress—the latter the party of reaction.

I am a Republican. I believe in national, progressive governmental policies, and that those policies in the future, as in the past, can be established and perpetuated within the Republican party. What has been accomplished along those lines within the party in this state, can be accomplished in the same way throughout the nation. The marvelous record of our advancement and progress as a nation of wealth, power and general prosperity for the last fifty years is but the story of the achievements of the Republican party.

Every progressive law within the statutes of the nation during that period was placed there by the Republican party. Such a record challenges the wonder and admiration of the world.

But, great as have been its achievements for humanity from the hour it liberated those million slaves down to the moment when it stands as the strong protector of every American industry and every American laboring man, yet, its mission is not ended.

In the future, as in the past, it will advance along surely progressive lines.
It is our only hope. No new party is necessary to accomplish those ends.
Such a party would only serve to weaken the Republican party, and hand over the control of the government to the Democratic party in state and nation, and thus retard real pro-gressivism for many years to come.

Every Democrat in the land today is praying that a third party may be formed, for he plainly sees certain victory for his party in this unnecessary disruption of the Republican party. As for me, I can but deplore such a course as I believe the same ends can be obtained within the party, without jeopardizing the best interests of the nation in surrendering the reins of government to the Democratic party.

I have not forgotten the dark days from 1893 to 1897, when the Democratic party was last in power. Every industry in the land was then paral-yzed. Distress was depicted upon every countenance. Our orange and lemon orchards were being dug up and the trees cut into firewood. Nor have I forgotten the wonderful and magical transformation upon the return of the Republican party to power. Every industry was revived, and has flourished ever since. Orange and lemon orchards were planted, until today, nearly one hundred millions are invested in California alone in that industry, bringing a rich return each year to our people.

I have not forgotten that only a year ago, every Democrat in the house of representatives voted to put lemons on the free list, and that the lemon industry was only saved from utter an-ihilation at that time by a Republican senator and a Republican president.

I have not forgotten that, only the other day at Baltimore, the Democratic party holding declared for the free trade policy that it put in force, will again bring disaster to all our industries that are now so prosperous under Republican rule.

Let the free trade blight again strike our oranges, lemons, walnuts, sugar beets, olives, raisins and other industries of our beloved state, general disaster will again overwhelm us as before, and in the following gloom we will have ample time to reflect on the folly of the minor dissension in our ranks, which made such a condition possible.

I would that every Republican could see the danger confronting us at this hour as it is. If I could I would rally every one of them around the old Republican standard of protection, that in the past has brought us universal prosperity. I would that I could unite them in a solid phalanx, to defend that policy of protection, modified to meet present conditions, aided by an expert, non-partisan tariff board, to the end that exact justice may be secured for the producer and the consumer.

Here are the projects for Greater Los Angeles, favored by the Northwestern Improvement Association, to take place when that city absorbs all the adjacent territory and has consequently increased its bonding capacity:

"Resolved, That when this territory is annexed that this greater Los Angeles issue $50,000,000 in 50-year bonds for the following improvements, viz:

"For the distribution of water, light, heat and power, $20,000,000. For harbor improvement, $8,000. For present and proposed parks and boulevards (the sum of $1,000,000 each for Griffith and Elysian parks) $8,000,000.
For a public market, $1,000,000. For a municipal work and garbage farm, $3,000,000. For a civic center, $10,000, 000. Total, $50,000,000."

Mrs. A. L. Lewis of 241 South Kenwood street was pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends who gathered in honor of her birthday anniversary on Friday afternoon. Each guest

(5.) Is such confident faith that Jesus

(9.) Did this woman have true faith

(14.) How did Jesus know, with so Diego realize the task she had set herself; but she saw that she had not so she mended the matter as quickly

THE sickness of a valuable animal on the farm demands prompt remedies.

It's a case for the veterinary—a case where minutes count. That's where the Bell Service shows its value to the farmer.

By means of the telephone the veterinary is reached, and he at once tells the farmer what to do until he arrives.
No far-sighted farmer gets along without the protection of the Bell Service.

He can never tell when it is going to save him from serious loss. Besides, he has daily proof of its usefulness.

CHAPTER VIII.

When began the weary weeks—and months, it seemed to some of us—of waiting. The excitement of enlisting and drilling the men, organizing the companies and getting the recruits uniformed acted on me like a tonic. I ceased to brood over my disappointment, and, while my love for Miss Ellen was as great as ever, yet I felt that I had regained my manhood, and the war spirit, once aroused in me, drove me like a master. The day of quitting the state was a sad one for many, but it was not so for me.
My heart bounded with joy when the order for our movement was read at headquarters. Of all the officers I think I was the only one whose departure was not blessed with tears of mother, sister or sweetheart. My father, now old and feeble, came to see me, and his eyes became wet as he beheld me for the first time in my uniform and folded me in his arms. My mother had long been dead—in fact, I could scarcely remember her at all.
Before saying goodby to my father I gave him a letter and made him promise that should anything happen to me he would send it to the address on the envelope.

He looked at me sadly for a moment and said:
"Does she live in the south, Howard, and is that why you have stayed away so long?"

I told him yes and turned away my head that he might not see what it had cost me to speak of her. He laid his hand gently on my shoulder and said, "We Palmers have never been lucky there, my son," and I thought I understood many little things in his life and knew then why he never had anything but what was kind to say of that southern country when he heard it under discussion. I grasped his hand and held it for a moment.

"May God protect you and bring you safe to me again," was all he said and left me.

Our regiment was only ordered to Camp Meade, but it was a start. The days there were dreary ones, and I shall never forget the about our boys put up when the order which turned our face to Camp Thomas, at Chickamauga, was read to them. It set our blood on fire, and I cannot repress my feelings of state pride even now when I recall the happy days of those Bay State fellows as they prepared to shoulder their muskets and start for the south. A majority of the regiment wanted to be brigaded with other regiments from Massachusetts, but with wisdom and foresight the chief executive commanded that the troops from the north should be brigaded with those from the south and west. It was a wise policy that threw the men from Michigan with those from Texas, and those from California with those from Maine and Vermont, and the men from Massachusetts with the honest fellows from Georgia. The spirit of friendship which had been growing for over thirty years was to be cemented by an alliance against a common enemy. This was how we found ourselves in the same brigade with a Georgia regiment and with another from Kentucky.

We mingled with one another from the first on friendly terms; we shared one another's rations and nursed one another's sick. I met every Georgian with an outstretched hand, for I felt somehow that they had claims on me which the others did not possess. The individual was lost in that great, crowded camp, and those with whom I talked of the Turpins did not seem to know them. But I was destined to hear news of my friends much sooner than I thought.

I had been sent to division headquarters one day with a message from my colonel. As I stepped under the awning of the tent I saw an officer in a major's uniform sitting at a table reading some reports. The face was partially in shadow, but I saw at once that it was Bud.

How much he knew I did not know.
I was eager to learn. He saw me before I spoke, and, not waiting, as I had done, he leaped from the table, scattering the contents over the floor, and rushed to me with arms outstretched.
Impulsively he threw one arm around my neck and with the other grasped my hand. He saw how deep my feeling was and did not speak at once.

"Bud," I asked finally, "how are all at the Pines?" It was the question which was most natural to my lips, for I had been hungering, yet dreading, to hear news of them.

"About the same. Nothing ever changes there," he said.

"Your father and mother?" I asked.

"Both are well, thank God!"

"And Miss Ellen?" I ventured.

For a moment his face clouded when he told me she was not like what she used to be. Then suddenly, as if some idea had shot across his mind for the first time, he dropped my hand and, looking me squarely in the face, said:

"She has never been the same since you were there." He seemed suddenly to stiffen with dignity as he added:
"Palmer, if I thought your visit there had wrought this change heaven only knows what I would do. Before taking my hand again answer me honestly, Palmer, did you trifle with my little sister when you were with us at the Pines?"

"Before God I did not!" I cried. "She rejected my love, and that is why I left so suddenly. I will tell you all about it, Bud, as I wanted to do before I left," I said.

"I believe you, Palmer," he said, laying his hand on my shoulder again.

He Rushed to Me With Arms Outstretched.

"But keep your secret, whatever it may be, for it is hers also, and you have no right to betray it."

I grasped his hand again and stood looking out into the dusty camp street and over the hills in the distance.

"Who is with them?" I asked presently.

"My younger brother, little Brent. He is keeping the family alive while I am doing what I can to keep alive its reputation," he said with an attempt at humor that cut me like a knife. "You may not know how we feel about this sort of thing down here," he added, "but to us it is quite as dear as life itself."

He then told me that it was Miss Ellen who had urged him to go to the front and who had given him the strength to leave the Pines. From his colonel I learned afterward that he had enlisted as a private, but was soon given a commission for an excellent record, and he owed his present place to his ability to handle men and not to political influences.

After that first meeting we saw each other daily, and when not on duty together we would light our pipes and wander through the dusty and fever-stricken streets, smoke and talk of home, but never did we speak of Ellen, though she was constantly in my thoughts and I believe in her brother's also.

Disease had broken out in camp, and typhoid raged with deadly effect during that long, cruel summer. One evening I went to bed feverish and not feeling myself at all. The day had been one of horror in the camp, and dispatches were flying between headquarters and the war department. The evening shades brought no relief to the tired soldiers. No one seemed to be asleep, and the men were stretched outside their dog tents. The ground was dry and hot, and the moon hung in the heavens like a great ball of fire.
Just as the midnight hour was called I heard some one in the direction of the Kentucky regiment, that lay across the road from us, begin to whistle the "Old Kentucky Home." The notes fell sweet and clear across the tented field.

Before he had finished a bar some one took up the tune and whistled a second. One after another joined in the melody, and finally there was hardly a man in the regiment, so it seemed to me, who was not whistling. It died away as suddenly as it had been inspired, and I think the camp slept with sweeter rest for having heard the serenade. I fell into a fitful sleep and waked to partial consciousness only when reveille was sounded.

I made an effort to rise, but felt back-too weak to move again. The surgeon came in shortly after that and took my temperature. It was with a sickening sense of humiliation that I heard him say that it was a bad case of fever.
Before I could be moved Bud came in, and I learned afterward that he feared I would be taken down. I turned my eyes to him in mute appeal. He touched my hand kindly, and I drew him near me.

"If I should die, Bud, will you tell Miss Ellen that I have always loved her and that my last thoughts were of her?" I said in a half whisper.

He pressed my hand for an answer and placed his other on my fevered temple. I heard him ask the doctor to let him have charge of this patient.
"His life is dearer than my own," he said. I saw the surgeon nod his head and bend him add that it would take great nursing to pull me through.

It was the last thing I remember for many a day. I heard afterward how he nursed me; how he slept by my cot at night and sat by it all day. Afterward he told me that I talked only of the Pines in my delirium, and for the first time he had learned that it was I who had taken up the mortgage and reduced the interest. The day came when the surgeons despaired of my life, and then it was that he telegraphed his sister. I have that faded bit of paper on which he wrote the message framed and hanging over my desk and underneath it her answer.

"Lieutenant Palmer lying at point of death. Your name incessantly on his lips. Don't come if you think best, but if might save his life," was what he sent.

The answer was even shorter. It read simply, "Keep him alive until I reach there."

They told me that her nursing saved my life. One touch from her hand and my delirium would subside, and, though I lay unconscious for days, she took little rest, and when she would lie down it was Bud who would take her place at my side.

One morning just after orders came for my regiment to start for Cuba my eyes opened to the world and my senses returned. Bud was by my side.
I knew then that Miss Ellen had been there, for the influence of her presence was with me still.

"Where is she?" I asked.
"Getting a little needed rest," he answered. "The crisis was passed last night, and she knows you are saved to her."

The big, strong fellow could stand it no longer. He knelt by my bed and, holding my hand, buried his face in the covering. I knew that he was weeping for very joy for his sister. I turned over wearily and laid my hand on his head.

"Bud," I whispered, "has she forgiven?"

"Yes, Howard," he said. "She has told you so herself many a time in the long watches of the night."

I lapsed into unconsciousness again, and when I awoke Miss Ellen was by my side. She it was who told me that my regiment was going and held my hand in sympathy, for she knew how it would hurt me to be left behind.
She read me the president's noble words of praise for the men who had answered to the call for troops and, drawing from her pocket a little slip of paper, read me what the executive had to say of those who had fallen ill with fever and who had served their country only in the camp. It was only a short message from our president in answer to an invitation to come to Chickamauga, but it cheered many a poor fellow who, as I, lay stricken with the fever and who was forced to see his comrades march away to duty at the front. It was the message just as it came, and as she read it her eyes filled with tears.

Executive Mansion, Washington.
Major General Commanding Camp Thomas, Chickamauga: Replying to your invitation, I beg to say that it would give me great pleasure to show by a personal visit to Chickamauga park my great regard for the 40,000 troops of your command who so patriotically responded to the call for volunteers and who have been for upward of two months making ready for any service and sacrifice the country might require. My duties, however, will not admit of absence from Washington at this time. The highest tribute that can be paid to the soldier is to say that he performed his full duty.
The field of duty is determined by his government, and wherever that chance to be in the place of honor. All have helped in the great cause, whether with fever in camp or in battle, and when peace comes all will be alike entitled to the nation's gratitude.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

After that she talked to me of the Pines, and then it was she told me she had never read my letters to her, that

When I Awoke, Miss Ellen Was by My Side.

she was afraid she might forgive me and that she did not want to do that even in her heart. When I was strong enough to sit up I was given a leave, and it was Miss Ellen herself who undertook to make all arrangements for my journey to the Pines, for it was there that I wanted to go to recuperate. Finally the day came when my regiment was to move. I was propped up with pillows that I might see it break camp and march away.

"Ellen," I said as I saw the last company, the one to which I belonged, fall into fours, "but for you I could not stand that," pointing to the retreating regiment.

She turned to me, and, making a low courtesy, as she had done that April night now many months ago, she said, smiling all the while through her tears:
"You were not made for a soldier."

my word. You have been forced to lay aside the sword. You must take up the pen again."

And then I knew for the first time that she had not only forgiven me, but that at last she had understood.

THE END.

the Board of Trustees of the City of excepting that in addition to said specifications No. 10 there shall be incorporated into the roadway a layer of tapering uniformly to a thickness of one inch at the curb line, of which the maximum pieces will pass through a 2½ inch ring and the minimum pieces oil as called for in said specifications the gravel as above specified shall then be evenly spread over the entire surface and rolled into said roadway, and then completed as provided for in specifications Number 10.

Second: That a cement curb be constructed along both lines of the roadway of said Doran Street from the East line of Central Avenue to the West line of Brand Boulevard and from the East line of Brand Boulevard to the specifications being numbered 2.

Third: That a cement walk five (5) feet in width be constructed along each line of said Doran Street from the

returns at all street intersections and 30 feet either side of a line drawn across said Doran Street 425 feet West from and parallel with Brand Boulevard, as shown on the improvement map adopted for said work, excepting along such portions of said Doran Street upon which a cement walk five (5) feet or more in width has already been constructed to the official line and grade, said sidewalk to be constructed in accordance with specifications for the construction of cement sidewalks, on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 1.

SECTION 2. That the said Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale finds upon estimates directed to be furnished and furnished by the City Engineer of said City of Glendale, that the total cost of said proposed work or improvement will be greater than fifty (50) cents per front foot along each line of upon said frontage; and said Board of Trustees determines that said serial bonds shall be issued to represent the cost of said work or improvement; said serial bonds shall be extended over a period ending nine (9) years from and after

Republican Candidate for Congress

Mr. Pitzer is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in this district, and is entitled to the support of every Republican voter in this district. He has saved the city of Alhambra more money in the city of city attorney than any other man who has ever been on the city pay roll; and his work as chairman of the committee of 1908 citizens to carry the bond issues stamps him as being one of the biggest boosters in this city today, and one who would be a credit to every citizen of the Ninth district if he were in Washington representing us in the lower house of Congress. Mr. Pitzer has been city attorney for several years, and is also chairman of the Board of Library Trustees; is Worthy Patron of the local lodge of Eastern Star and is Past Master of the Masonic lodge in this city.

The following statement is issued to the Republican voters of this congressional district by Mr. Pitzer:

Mr. Pitzer's Statement.
To the Voters of the Ninth Congressional District:

As a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress I desire to state that I am a Republican. That I am for a protective tariff modified to meet the present conditions, and particularly for a protective tariff on oranges, lemons and other industries of the state of California which would certainly be paralyzed by a free trade policy or a tariff for revenue only.

I remember very well the Coxey army and the empty dinner pail, and feel absolutely certain that a third party organization would bring about the same condition of affairs, and possibly worse. And if nominated and elected to this position, I will pledge myself to the people of this State to protect their interests as far as in my power.

Mankind has in all ages been struggling for freedom, physical, religious and political. The first two have been attained in this country, but the last has not, hence I would favor all laws tending to the advancement of political emancipation, and for the betterment of the condition of women and children.

As City Attorney of the City of Alhambra I have persistently and effectively insisted on maintaining the welfare and benefit of the people's interests at large, and if elected to this position would insist upon pursuing the same policy. I am for a universal peace treaty. And if elected will favor a measure appropriating government funds for an ocean-to-ocean highway.

for a restaurant liquor license, and on this occasion the trustees and the city attorney showed of what material they are made. The petition was flatly refused on the ground that the city already has a prohibition ordinance. During the past two weeks previous to the presenting of this petition to the trustees residents opposing the granting of the license had circulated petitions protesting against the license being granted. On these petitions, it is stated, were several hundred names of the leading citizens of this place.

A test as to whether or not the water ordinance passed recently by this city holds good was demonstrated recently by a resident of this city. A party by the name of Mr. Cole, applied to the company for a connection and they wanted to charge him $20 for that service. He went to City Attorney Baker and was instructed to go to any plumber and get a figure on that work. He did so and was given a figure of $5.75. The city attorney then went to Mr. Rogers of the water company, and offered him $5.75 for making the connection. At first Mr. Rogers refused the money, but before the attorney left he accepted it and the connection was made at once. Mr. Baker stated: "Hereafter, if you wish to make a connection, get a price from any plumber for the work, take this amount and tender it to the water company manager or agent, get a receipt from them stating for what purpose you paid it. If they refuse to accept the amount tendered, wait five days, then get a permit from the street superintendent, for which no charge will be made, then go to the plumber from whom you received the price and have him make the connection."

purchased a beautiful home at the corner of Seventh and Central avenue, died on Thursday evening, August 8.

Mr. Heidet was a great sufferer from rheumatism and in connection with that trouble suffered a general breakdown something over a month ago. Dr. Thompson was called in and he began to improve very rapidly, and in a short time was in better health than he had been for months, and was able to take walks for some distance, and otherwise enjoy life, as he had not done for some time. But in some manner he contracted a severe cold which despite the most heroic efforts of the doctor and the careful nursing, developed into acute pneumonia, causing his death in a very short time. He was sick but two days.

Mr. Heidet was a retired traveling salesman and made his home for the past five years at the Hollenbeck hotel. His funeral was attended by many Los Angeles friends, also a number from Glendale. He was an ardent admirer of flowers, roses in particular, and many beautiful floral pieces and bouquets were in evidence. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Pulliam Undertaking Parlor, and Rev. Messias of the Episcopal church, delivered the funeral sermon, which was brief, in accordance with the wish of the deceased.
